

Long Term Care in Wisconsin is Changing!

Public Forums on proposed changes to services for Elderly, Developmentally Disabled & Physically Disabled citizens in Wisconsin have been planned. Learn how the Family Care initiative will plan to provide needed services in Washington County. Hosted by: Aging and Disability Resource Center, Dept. of Social Services, Comprehensive Community Services Agency. Your input and questions are important to the process.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THIS IMPORTANT DISCUSSION!

Tuesday, June 19, 2007 – 6:30 to 8:00 p.m.
Hartford Senior Center
730 Highland Avenue
Hartford, WI

Saturday, June 23, 2007 – 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.
The Threshold, Inc.
600 Rolfs Avenue
West Bend, WI

Featured speaker will be:
Jim Hoegemeier, ARC Wisconsin

Mr. Hoegemeier has provided this informative presentation in many other counties throughout the state. This discussion is for individuals on CIP/COP, their family members, guardians, service providers, local officials and anyone interested in future services for the frail elderly and persons with disabilities.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

- History of the Family Care Initiative
- How It Works
- Family Care in Washington County
- Advocacy and What You Can Do
- Questions and Answers